Teaching Evaluation Report for 2023 Winter Term 1 Guest Lecture

Title: Lost in Transcription – An Undergraduate Guide to Research

Antonio Wong, Biochemistry Laboratory 2023W1 (BIOC301)

Course Audience:	148
Responses Received:	20
Response Ratio:	14%

Recommended Minimum Response Rates (based on 80% confidence ± 10% margin)

Class Size	Recommended Minimum Response Rate
< 10	75%
11 - 19	65%
20 - 34	55%
35 - 49	40%
50 - 74	35%
75 - 99	25%
100 - 149	20%
150 - 299	15%
300 - 499	10%
> 500	5%

Instructor Questions

	D	N	A	IM	%A	%(N+A)
Learning Outcomes: The lecture material is responding to learning objectives.	0	2	18	4.9	90%	100%
Motivation: The lecturer created an engaging connection and abstract to preface the subject matter.	0	2	18	4.9	90%	100%
Assessment: The lecturer has a realistic understanding on your prior-knowledge through pre-lecture engagement.	0	1	19	5.0	95%	100%
Active Learning: Multimodal elements (i.e. the physical mushroom and in-class participation) enhances your ability to grasp class content.	1	3	16	4.9	80%	95%
Clarity: Word choices used in the lecture were thoughtful and appropriate in complexity.	1	0	19	5.0	95%	95%
Inclusive Teaching: The lecturer advocates all of you to engage in research opportunities to deepen your interests.	0	2	18	4.9	90%	100%
Metacognition: The lecture create new connections between your prior knowledge and new material.	0	2	18	4.9	90%	100%
Career Development: The lecture inspired you to reflect on your own learning and your experiences in science.	2	4	14	4.8	70%	90%
Sustained Attention: You are able to follow the complete lecture at the pace of the instructor.	0	1	19	5.0	95%	100%
Transferability of Knowledge: Connections between lecture content and practical applications are apparently conveyed.	1	1	18	4.9	90%	95%

D: Disagree, N: Neutral, A: Agree, IM: Interpolated Median

Other Comments

- Lecture was very well done, very engaging with a little comedy here and there helped break up the info heavy side of the tp[oc
- bussin ass presentation G
- Really appreciated the enthusiasm. Very engaging presentation:)))
- loved the memes it made me want to listen fr, very engaging (and the fact that 1:20 hit and no one was packing up) thanks for lecturing!!!
- Amazing presentation, really enjoyed it! Please present for us again!
- I really enjoyed your presentation and your overall tone and the way you presented on your research kept me wanting more! I definitely will utilize some of the skills you used in your presentation to my future presentations! :)

End of report.