

Centre for Feminist Legal Studies Lecture Series – Spring 2005

Lectures are held on Thursdays from 12:30 to 1:30 PM.
Room 157 of the Curtis Law Building. Everyone welcome!

Speaker	Topic	Date
Dr. Jayoti Gupta Fellow of Sociology, Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta	“The Life of the Law” - A film on gender and alternative dispute mediation practices in West Bengal, India	January 6th
Frances McQueen Coordinator, Vancouver Area Survivors of Torture	Gender-based claims at the Immigration and Refugee Board - principals and practise	January 13th
Kelly MacDonald, LLM Barrister and Solicitor, Vancouver, BC	Social Justice Work: Through the Lens of an Aboriginal Feminist	January 20th
Dr. Wendy Chan SFU School of Criminology	The Racialized Impact of Welfare Fraud Control in BC and Ontario	January 27th
Sarah Khan BC Public Interest Advocacy Centre	Overview of current litigation and women’s socio-economic rights	February 3rd
Dr. Dorothy Smith UVic Department of Sociology	Institutional ethnography	February 10th
No Speaker	Reading Week	February 17th
Dr. Carole Blackburn UBC Department of Anthropology and Sociology	Reclaiming Modernity: Reading Nationalist Narratives in the Debate over Reconciliation and Aboriginal Rights in Canada	February 24th
Caryn Duncan Vancouver Women’s Health Collective	TBA	March 3rd
Dr. Becki Ross UBC Sociology and Women’s Studies	The Men Behind the Marquee: Bankrolling Striptease in Downtown and East End Vancouver, 1945-1975	March 10th