

THE CENTRE FOR FEMINIST LEGAL STUDIES LECTURES SERIES
SPRING 2001 - Schedule

Tanis Doe professor at University of Victoria, and expert on issues related to women and disability	"Difficult Choices? Women, Fetal Disability, and Equality Rights in Canada"	Thursday, January 4 12:30 - 2pm UBC, Faculty of Law, Rm. 157
Annabel Webb Director, Justice for Girls	"Seeking Justice for Girls Living in Poverty"	Thursday, January 11 12:30 - 2pm UBC, Faculty of Law, Rm. 157
Haike Muller LLB, LLM Year 1, Instructor and Researcher	will discuss her recent work entitled: "North American Indian, Metis and Inuit Women Speak about Culture, Education and Work"	Thursday, January 18 12:30 - 2pm UBC, Faculty of Law, Rm. 157
Sanda Rodgers Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa	"Institutional Abuse & Alternative Remedies: constructing a feminist process for compensating survivors"	Thursday, January 25 12:30 - 2pm UBC, Faculty of Law, Rm. 157
Anita Braha	"A Feminist's Law Practice: Practicalities and Possibilities"	Thursday, March 8 12:30 - 2pm UBC, Faculty of Law, Rm. 157
Madame Justice Lynn Smith	"Equality Jurisprudence Under Section 15 of the Charter, and its Impact on Women's Equality"	Thursday, March 15 12:30 - 2pm UBC, Faculty of Law, Rm. 157

If you have any questions, please call the Centre for Feminist Legal Studies, UBC Law School at 822-6523.