

MARLEE G. KLINE

Essay Prize

"The various intersections between gender, race, class, sexual orientation, and other differentiating characteristics, will affect how and when all women experience sexism."
(Marlee Kline, 1989)

The Centre for Feminist Legal Studies will award a $250 prize to the best essay written by a J.D. student attending the University of British Columbia during the 2016-2017 academic year, addressing the themes identified in the above quotation in relation to a topic dealing with law or legal regulation. The prize is offered in the name of Marlee Kline, a feminist UBC law professor who died in November 2001. The essay should be written for a UBC course, seminar, or directed research project and must incorporate feminist research and analysis.

Length: The essay shall be between 4,000 and 10,000 words, and shall be typewritten and double-spaced, using 12 point font.

Selection: The submissions will be reviewed by a committee of feminist law professors.

Submission: Students should send essay submissions to Professor Debra Parkes, via email to parkes@allard.ubc.ca by Friday, June 1, 2018.
