

Letter to Future Students

What is your advice for a student from the next cohort who takes LAWS1207? (Worth 5%)

For your final assignment, you will write a welcoming letter “coaching” a future student who is beginning their first day in this “Law Enforcement in a Diverse Society” course. This is your opportunity to reflect on what helped — and did not help — you work through each of the class activities, tests, and assignments and gift a future student with your wise teaching. Submit your letter (meeting all the criteria below) by the due date is posted on Blackboard.

GRADING RUBRIC	5 points Perfect!	0 points (one or more errors)
Mentoring attitude. Helpful coaching.	A helpful attitude. Taking leadership as a sincere mentor invested in helping future students learn about diversity theories and evidence and adopt social justice practices.	Insincere or less than helpful coaching.
Honesty and respect.	Your honest reflection about your actual experiences in this course. “Diversity-friendly, respectful style.	Lack of honesty or respectful tone.
Content	Discuss: (1) your successes and challenges with at least 3 course actives; (2) personal reflection; and (3) how this course content affected your preparation for your future career as a law enforcement officer.	Less than 3 course elements discussed.
Word count	Minimum 250 words. You must include your word count.	Less than 250 words or missing word count.
Perfect spelling and grammar	Perfect spelling and grammar	One or more mistakes.
Submitted before the deadline posted on the Blackboard calendar	Submitted on time.	Submitted late.

COURSE OVERVIEW

- .....
Spice of Life video - cultural awareness
- .....
Diversity-friendly communications style
- .....
Visual Intelligence text
- .....
Visual intelligence in-class activities and practice
- .....
Individual tests and team-based “scratch-and-win” tests
- .....
Diversity observations
- .....
Gender, transgender and sexual consent
- .....

- .....
Food bank
- .....
Religion and religiously-motivated hate crimes
- .....
Truth and Reconciliation graphic novel
- .....
The Mask You Live In video
- .....
Miss Representation video
- .....
Syrian family visit
- .....
Honour-system and bonus points based on the honour-system
- .....