

Rabbi Dr. Michael Lerner

The Politics of Land in Israel/Palestine

Michael Lerner is a Jewish Rabbi of liberal views who is best known for his sympathetic analysis of both Palestinian and Jewish commitments to their ancestral lands, and for his criticism of recent Israeli policies toward the West Bank. His views are anathema to many orthodox Jews; he has been called "the most controversial Jew in America." Among his many books are Healing Israel/Palestine: A path to Peace and Reconciliation (2003), The Left Hand of God: Taking Back Our Country from the Religious Right (2006) and most recent being Embracing Israel-Palestine: A Strategy to Heal and Transform the Middle East (2012)

Hosted by the UBC Geography Department

a place of mind
THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Tuesday, October 22, 2013
12:00pm – 1:30pm

Geography Bldg. Room 229
1984 West Mall, Vancouver