

Michael Ly

3007 Glen Dr

Coquitlam, BC, V3B 0L8

Phone: (604) 753-8944

Email: Michael.ly239@gmail.com

Objective	Grow technical skills in programming, leading to junior QA role
Qualifications	Programming Languages: Java, R, Git
Education
2014-Present	The University of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC Bachelor of Science in Computer Science
2022-2018	The University of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy
Employment
2014 – Present	Shoppers Drug Mart, BC Started as pharmacy assistant, then promoted to pharmacist role when licensed (full-time). Then promoted to Pharmacy Manager in October 2018. Responsible for educating patients on the effectiveness, safety, and purpose of their medications. Trained UBC Pharmacy Students in pharmaceutical patient care and pharmacy dispensary practice and regulations. Certified and experienced in the administration of influenza, COVID-19, and private vaccines. Ensure patient continuity of care through communication with patients and their healthcare providers.
2021 – 2022	Fraser Health Authority COVID-19 Immunizer, BC Work in collaboration with a team of healthcare workers and support staff to administer COVID-19 vaccinations to mature minors, adults, and geriatric populations. Prepare vaccinations, monitor, and respond to patient adverse reactions with epinephrine injections
2020 – 2022	Vancouver Technical Secondary School Student Mentor, BC Provide resources for career and financial planning, as well as insight on post-secondary education pathways. Share personal experiences and help set goals and expectations for students transitioning to post-secondary school. Provide motivation and encouragement to secondary students who are anxious about post-secondary life
References	Available on request.