

CETA's Significance: Exploring the Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement Between Canada and the E.U.

Wednesday, February 29th
10:00 - 5:00 pm
Ontario Investment & Trade Centre
(250 Yonge St. - 35th floor, Toronto ON)

The European Union Centre of Excellence at York University and the European Union Chamber of Commerce in Toronto are pleased to present a one-day seminar on the Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement Between Canada and E.U. currently being negotiated.

This event will bring together key players in the negotiations, academics and representatives of a variety of stakeholder groups for a day of panel presentations and discussions examining CETA from a variety of perspectives. Themes to be addressed in the day's panels include industry and labour, agriculture and the environment as well as investment and public procurement.

A limited number of travel subsidies are available to facilitate the participation of students and faculty at Canadian universities. To inquire about these, please contact <euuce@yorku.ca>

All are welcome, however, preregistration at the link below is required:
