The Minerva Foundation for BC Women is building a sustainable community of women leaders. Minerva's education awards target women who will have the most impact in their work or community, and those in fields or demographic groups who are currently underrepresented in leadership roles.

Eligibility: The purpose of the award is to support eligible women who wish to pursue her studies in Business Administration at the UBC Sauder School of Business. The fund will be awarded to a full-time student starting 2013-2014 Winter Session or a student enrolled in the part-time MBA program which began in February 2013. Challenge, audit and credit free courses will not be considered.

To be eligible for the award, a recipient must

- be a female resident of British Columbia
- demonstrate financial need
- demonstrate academic proficiency (GPA 3.0)
- demonstrate community engagement
- meet at least one of the following criteria:
  - a single mother advancing her education
  - a mature woman returning to the workforce after a long absence
  - a recent immigrant or an Aboriginal woman overcoming educational barriers
  - a woman with a disability overcoming educational barriers.

To help us evaluate your application, please include the following documents:

- This application form completed and signed.
- Two letters of reference, signed and sealed, preferably from an academic professional, your employer or/and volunteer supervisor.
- A cover letter (a two-page personal essay), which describes why you require this financial assistance; how you meet the eligibility criteria; and how this award would help you make the most impact in your studies, work and community.
- A resume listing your career goals, academic achievements, volunteer and work experience.
- A recent transcript.

Please do not staple your application form.
Incomplete applications will not be considered.
