

MBAN Class President

The President shall:

- a. Be enrolled in the MBAN program.
- b. Uphold and exemplify the vision and values of the student body.
- c. Uphold traditions and cultivate a student culture consistent with the vision and values.
- d. Represent the interests of all members of the MBAN Society and maintain equality with respect to benefits and activities provided by the MBAN Society.
- e. Represent the MBAN Society to external communities, the Robert H. Lee Graduate School and faculty.
- f. Build strong connections with various school bodies, including the Robert H. Lee Graduate School, Hari B. Varshney Business Career Centre, and Development and Alumni Engagement Office.
- g. Chair Executive Council meetings.
- h. Reserve the right to designate another member chair.
- i. Work with VP Internal to draft budgets for activities and items purchased.
- j. Work with VP Events/VP Careers to attend networking events during school periods.
- k. Supervise and direct the duties of Executive Council members.
- l. Promote the Sauder School of Business reputation and establish a positive image in the external business community.
- m. Create a summary of the MBAN year for reference for next year's Executive Council.
- n. Be the Graduate Student Society (GSS) Representative for MBAN.
- o. Be responsible for communication within the MBAN.