

David Lam Library

and the Canaccord Learning Commons

a world class research hub for business students

[About Us]

UBC Libraries

David Lam Library is part of the second-largest research library system in Canada. UBC Libraries has 15 branches and divisions, including its Okanagan campus location.

[About Us]

David Lam Management Research Library

1985

Opened in the Faculty of Commerce & Business Administration

85

Globally renowned business databases

60

Specially curated research and course guides

Over

7 million

Print and electronic items

[lam.library.ubc.ca]

Visit our website to find online resources on business and management topics

Research is your key.

Many of your class assignments will require you to find high quality information on an industry, company, consumer group, location or business topic.

Talk to us!

Hello!

My name is Kimberly and I am your IMBA designated business librarian.

Feel free to send me an email if you have any research questions or data that you may be looking for!

kimberly.fama@ubc.ca

See you around!