

Taking Courses with Shanghai Jiao Tong University (SJTU)

Part-time MBA

SJTU Part-time MBA Program will open up to 6 seats to UBC IMBA student per year (September 2023 to June 2024). IMBA student can take up to ONE course from a pre-selected SJTU course list upon approval from Robert H. Lee Graduate School. Students can apply if they meet all the requirements below:

- Successful completion of all Foundation Courses
- Academic average of all attempted IMBA courses of 75% or higher
- No academic misconduct history and commitment to the academic policies of both schools
- Chinese language proficiency

SJTU Part-time MBA courses consist of 32 in-class hours. The class times for the SJTU Part-time MBA courses vary broadly and it is the student's full responsibility to follow the schedule. Successfully passing one SJTU Part-time MBA course is equal to 1.5 credits for the UBC IMBA Program. The grade will be shown as Pass/Fail on the transcript.

Restrictions

IMBA students taking SJTU Part-time MBA courses are subject to the following restrictions:

- IMBA students taking SJTU Part-time MBA Courses are responsible for the costs of course materials and textbooks.
- Approved IMBA students will be enrolled into the SJTU course, subject to seat availability. Auditing of the courses is NOT permitted.
- Application approval is based upon academic performance from qualified applicants and acceptance by SJTU MBA Office.
- IMBA students must apply by 3 months before desired SJTU courses.

Applications from IMBA students wishing to take SJTU Part-time MBA courses should be submitted to the IMBA Student Experience Team.

