

Alicia DeGelder
777 Jones Street
Kelowna B.C. V1Y 2S6
Phone: 250-859-0267
Email: alicia.degelder@alumni.ubc.ca

Objective: To obtain a summer position working in the Biomedical Research Center at UBC

Education:

2003 Southern Alberta Institute of Technology, Calgary, A.B.
Certificate – Sterile Processing and Distribution

2014-2020 University of British Columbia – Okanagan, Kelowna, B.C.
Bachelor of Science, Microbiology. GPA 3.3/4.3

Employment:

June 2017 – present Administrative Assistant – KGH Microbiology (Full-time)

- Assist Medical Microbiologists with scheduling, arranging meetings, booking travel etc.
- Data entry
- Ordering and stocking supplies
- Programs used: Word, Excel, Visio

Sept. 2006 – June 2017 Medical Device Reprocessing Technician

- Clean, assemble, sterilize surgical instrumentation
- Prioritization of workload
- Communication, as needed, with OR to ensure the highest standard of patient care

Volunteer Experience:

2014 – present Hospice House

- Front desk work, including answering phones, greeting clients and family members
- Maintains and sends out volunteer schedule weekly
- Reiki practitioner

Research

2017 Presented at CACMID/AAMI 2018
DeGelder, A., Calissi, P., Wang, B., Blondel-Hill, E., Wilmer, A. Improved Test and Antimicrobial Utilization at Kelowna General Hospital with Implementation of Simplexa™ HSV 1&2 Direct PCR Assay and Microbiologist Case Review.
AMMI/CACMID 2018

Personal:

Achievements:

Toastmasters – Member since January 2019

Reiki Practitioner Level I and II – 2015

TCPS2: Core Certification – Sept 2017

Interests:

Running, yoga, biking, hiking, and reading

References:

Available upon request