1. Call to Order

Meeting called to order by Myles, meeting chair, at 12:03pm.

2. Reports

a. CLA

Kaya reported that due to the dissolution of the CLA, we are unable to obtain funding from them for this year. The status of student CLA chapters also remains to be determined. During the first week of June, the CLA will hold their last meeting. The status of the Student to CLA funding is also undetermined at this time; Kaya may not be able to attend without funding.

b. BCLA

Myles informed us that the strategic plan for the BCLA is finished, but cannot yet be distributed. Early registration for the BCLA conference is now open; information about volunteering for the conference will be available soon.

c. Treasurer

Laura not present; nothing to report.

d. ALS

Colleen not present; nothing to report.

e. YAACS

YAACS had two events recently - a storytellers and puppetmaking event; both were successful but had low attendance. On March 12th, a ukulele workshop is being held, led by Allison Taylor-McBryde. The date of March 16th has been set for Bookish Bloodshed: Battle of the Helpful Librarians, from 12:30-1:30pm. The larger YAACS meeting will be held next Monday.

f. VIMLOC

Alan not present; nothing to report.

g. Reader's Advisory Interest Group

Chloe would like to collect book recommendations from BCLA/CLA Student Chapter members for the end of the school year; she will be sending out an email. Short annotations would be welcomed.

h. Intellectual Freedom Committee

Jennette shared that the Freedom to Read Week event was very successful, with 25-30 in attendance, including members of the general public and students. There is no news about a new chair of the IFC yet.

i. Communications

Kate discussed the possibility of putting up images from Freedom to Read Week online, but needs to check on permissions; images of the panelists only could be used. The suggestion was made that in the future, the group could state in the Eventbrite registration that individuals are giving permission when they register to have their photo taken and shared.

3. Old Business

Group Constitution

Due to the conflicting LASSA meeting, the group's constitution will be discussed in greater detail at the next meeting.

Rare Books Tour

This tour was successful, with 10-11 in attendance.

Upcoming Panel Discussion

Kaya and Chloe are organizing a Getting Hired in Libraries panel from 1-2pm in the Dodson room on March 17th. Questions are being collected to ask the panelists in the following google doc:

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1NSLzlOpbOLm1bSpPhOjeUifmHgEgkRuECzealYLUtY/edit>.

Year-in-Review

A year-in-review document is required of each executive, to be submitted by the end of April.

4. Next Meeting

The next meeting is tentatively scheduled for April 7, from 12-1pm in the Trail Room, to be chaired by Chloe.

5. Meeting Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 12:19pm.
