

About Us

Aims and Scope

BC Toxicology News Monthly Bulletin (BCTOX) aims to popularise the knowledge of toxicology and expand use and the awareness of Toxicology News in British Columbia, Canada. It tries to engage health and environmental professionals with online published toxicology news, publicly available information, and by providing short communications. BCTOX mainly focuses on adapting or summarizing relevant toxicology news in BC. The Bulletin accepts and welcomes contributions from professionals and the public as long as they meet BCTOX standards.

Copyright Statement

BCTOX's content is currently prepared by Reza Afshari. The bulletin retains the copyright of their articles and will be able to archive pre-print, post-print, and publisher's versions.

This bulletin is not official and for the most parts is not peer-reviewed. It does not cover all the news, and is not liable for the accuracy of the news from media. It is, however, BC related, informative, handpicked and fun to read. The provided contents are not necessarily BCTOX's views.

BCTOX has been modified since (BCTOX 2017 June 2(6)) issue. It is now accepting 400 words educational material, commentaries, and research abstracts (with data) as long as they are within the scope of the bulletin and meets our standards. We are going to publish up to four short [but not full papers] abstracts in each issue. This section of the journal is peer reviewed.

Archiving. Digital Archiving: In addition to indexing database this Bulletin utilizes digital archive as well as hard copies to guarantee long-term preservation and restoration.

Publication Ethics

This bulletin follows International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE)'s Recommendations. Authors (i) must declare any conflict of interest in a given manuscript, and we utilize COPE workflow to transparently handle it, (ii) follow ICMJE definition of author and contribution, and (iii) accept the ethical policy including regulation and malpractice statement.

Guide for Authors

From June 2017 (BCTOX 2017 2(6)) we publish original research, mini reviews, short communications, letters, case reports, and case series as long as they are limited to 400 words and the content is British Columbia related. These publications are peer reviewed.
