

CONFLICT THEATRE @ UBC

THE RIPPLE OUT PHASE, WINTER 2017-2018

OUR INTENTIONS

- 1) Growing Conflict Theatre as a sustainable strategy to engage constructively with conflict at UBC.
- 2) Building capacity to engage constructively with conflict in accordance with the UBC Respectful Environment Statement.

CONFLICT THEATRE COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

Summer Intensive Participants, 2017, 2014, 2011

A) Learning and Skill Development

- 1) Skill-Development sessions (E.g. Acting, joking, directing)
- 2) Follow-ups on what individual community members want to do.
- 3) Online space for ongoing conversations (currently working on it!).

B) Community Engagement and Practice

- 1) Conflict Theatre Forum Performances for the extended UBC Audience
- 2) Conflict Theatre Intensives (CUPE 2950 and Forestry are interested).
- 3) Smaller skill development sessions as per unit needs.

SEE PAGE 2 FOR MORE DETAILS ON COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

CONFLICT THEATRE @ UBC

THE RIPPLE OUT PHASE, WINTER 2017, 2018

INVITATION TO THE COP

Continue as part of Conflict Theatre Community of Practice to:

-Stay connected with other UBC staff who speak the language of Conflict Theatre and learn further skills at sessions designed for you.

-Apply your learning at Conflict Theatre events and activities that target extended UBC audiences (participate as cast members, apprentice jokers, and more!)

TIMELINE OF EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

October	November	January
First two weeks: <ul style="list-style-type: none">-2-hour lunch-time CoP Skills Development session by Tom Scholte (Acting Skills Intensive) Last two weeks: <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Rehearsal for cast members (all welcome!)-Forum Performance for HR (TBC)	Last two weeks: <ul style="list-style-type: none">-2-hour lunch-time CoP Skills Development session-Rehearsal (all welcome!)- Forum Performance for UBC Coaches (TBC)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">-Stay tuned for a Joking/Directing Skills Intensive by Tom Scholte!

Questions about CoP? Ideas? We want to hear from you!

PARTICIPATION IN EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES IS ALWAYS AS PER YOUR INTEREST AND AVAILABILITY.