Dear Sir or Madam,

I am pleased to recommend Denise Kenney. I had the fortunate opportunity to have Denise Kenney as a professor/instructor during my time at the University of British Columbia's Okanagan Campus (2010-13). She instructed me in several classes and also acted as my academic and creative adviser while attaining my Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Interdisciplinary Performance.

As an active member of her community, she works with a broad circle of local artists and pursues an interest in eco-friendly art initiatives such as the Eco-Art Incubator Project. Aside from her community work, she also teaches students in the Interdisciplinary Performance program at UBCO and finds time for family life with her husband and her daughter.

I look up to Denise for her hard working attitude. She adheres to the rule that the artist serves the community they live in. Moreover, she is a fountain of knowledge for her students. She is always able to provide students with the most up-to-date information on contemporary performance practices and her office door is always open to students who need clarification on a project, help in defining their projects or as a personal career consultant. Sometimes, with all the work she does, I can not understand how she gets it all done and still makes time for her family.

For all of these reasons, I think Denise makes a wonderful professor and a member of the academic team at the University of British Columbia's Okanagan campus. Should you have any questions, I invite you to contact me at the number or email, above.

Best regards,

Kevin Jesuino
