

Date: November 23, 2012

Time: 9:30—10:15

Place: Room 114

Brian Burkholder from 3P Learning will lead us in an online workshop on Mathletics.

“Mathletics is a comprehensive on-line Math learning resource used by over 3.5 million students and over 10,000 schools world-wide.”

After the workshop, teachers can opt into a 30 day trial of Mathletics.

Please confirm your attendance with Don.

We can register you and your students in advance and then you can get started immediately after our session with Brian.
