

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!
The 2nd Marketplace Event

LOVE IT OR LOSE IT
Ideas to keep in your teaching practice and ones to let go

MONDAY, May 17, 2021, 4-5:30 pm
<https://blogs.ubc.ca/edleadershipnetwork/>

Photo: N Hewitt

This past year of emergency remote instruction presented both challenges and opportunities to test technologies and approaches for online and interactive learning. We are excited to invite you to attend this Celebrate Learning event to reflect on and share lessons learned, and the teaching tools and approaches gleaned during the 2020 academic year.

The event will host short presentations by a number of instructors sharing teaching practices that they “love” and will build on, and those they wish to reshape, or maybe even “lose.” While getting ideas from others, and reflecting on your own teaching practices, this session will prepare us to shape our future as we make plans to develop our teaching and educational leadership in light of our collective experiences. The event is open to all faculty at UBC Vancouver Okanagan.

~ A call for presenters on teaching techniques will come shortly ~

MCs: Dr. Silvia Bartolic, UBCV and Dr. Sally Willis-Stewart, UBCO
Organizers: Dr. Nina Hewitt, UBCV and Dr. Anita Chaudhuri, UBCO

Details of registration are available via CTLT/CTL, Celebrate Learning Week