Jasmin Senghera
February 12th, 2019

LinkedIn Peer Review Template

First Impressions:
-based on an initial glance, what are your thoughts?
-what do you like about the profile?
-are there any immediate visible errors or difficulties in understanding?

Visuals & Details:
-is there a profile and header image present?
-is the quality of the images strong?
-are these images appropriate?
-does the individual have a customized URL?

Contact Information:
-are there sufficient contact details provided?

Headline & Summary:
-is there a headline and summary present?
-does the headline accurately summarize the individual?
-does the summary indicate objectives and skills?
-are the headline and summary personable and professional?

Education:
-is educational experience present?
-are the educational institutions and degree details properly listed?

Work & Volunteer Experience:
-is there work and/or volunteer experience present?
-are these experiences adequately described?
-are the descriptions of these experiences easy to read?

Skills:
-are relevant skills stated?
-have any of these skills been endorsed by others?
-are there any skills that could be added based on the experiences?

Interests:
-are there interest present on the page?
-do these interests reflect the individual's objectives and skills?

Connections:
-does the individual have connections added?

Jasmin Senghera
February 12th, 2019

Organization & Grammar:
-are there any grammatical errors?
-is there consistency throughout the profile?

Concluding Comments:
-what are the strongest areas of the profile?
-what are the main areas of improvement?
-bullet list re-capping recommendations from each component.