

WORKSHOP

Philosophy Beyond Academia:

Practicing Engaged Philosophical Inquiry
on the Topic of Friendship

WORKSHOP

DATE: October 30, 2014, 12:30-2:00pm

LOCATION: Buchanan Building, 1866 Main Mall, Room D317

During this event we will learn about the theories and methods behind Engaged Philosophical Inquiry (EPI), as well as how it can be practiced with children and adults. The workshop will then engage you in a philosophical dialogue around friendship, demonstrating how EPI works in practice.

For more information please visit:

<http://blogs.ubc.ca/epic/>

Dr. Barbara Weber, Associate Professor in Human Development, Learning & Culture in the Faculty of Education at UBC.

Arthur Wolf, Ph.D. student in Human Development, Learning & Culture in the Faculty of Education at UBC.

Dr. Alan Richardson, Professor and Head of the Department of Philosophy at UBC.

Dr. Chris Mole, Associate Professor in the Department of Philosophy at UBC.

Dr. Christina Hendricks, Sr. Instructor in the Department of Philosophy at UBC.