A photograph of children in a workshop-like setting, using cardboard boxes to create various structures. In the foreground, a young boy with light brown hair is focused on cutting a piece of cardboard with green-handled scissors. He is wearing a dark blue long-sleeved shirt. In the background, another child is sitting on the floor, surrounded by cardboard boxes and other materials. The room is filled with various cardboard creations, including a large structure that looks like a crane or a truck. The floor is made of light-colored wood.
