

106. Convolvulus althaeoides

mallow bindweed

Convolvulaceae

Basic ID Nectar/pollen rich flowers, climber

Zone: 6-8

Type: herbaceous perennial (climber)

Height and spread: 15cm/60cm

Bloom time: mid to late summer

Evergreen/deciduous: deciduous

Flower & Fall color: pink

Leaf arrangement/Foliage: either climber or trail, bearing delicate heart-shaped, silver green leaves.

Flower/cone/fruit description(s): funnel shaped flowers are borne and a striking clear pink

Recommended plant index ***

Common: tough climber

Tough: tough

Maintainence: low

Light: sun

Water use: low

Soil requirement: Well drained/light/sandy

Maintenance advice: 1.

Disease: N/A

Invasive/poisonous: may invasive (mild climate)

Easy to be noticed: s

Usages

Useful cultivars and selections in Vancouver: ” ”

Plant design combination: N/A

Suggested plant area: rock garden, containers, Mediterranean Woodlands and Shrub lands, Semi-steppe shrub lands, Shrub-steppes, Deserts and extreme deserts

Texture: soft

Form: climber

Special usages in landscape: ecological effect: bees