

111. Sedum album white stonecrop Crassulaceae(L10)

Basic ID creeping, mat-forming, evergreen sedum with white flowers

Zone:3 to 9

Type:herbaceous perennial

Height and spread: 0.5/075 feet

Bloom time:May to June

Evergreen/deciduous:s

Flower & Fall color: white ,good fall color

Leaf arrangement/Foliage:succulent, linear-oblong, cylindrical too flattened, green leaves

Flower/cone/fruit description(s):showy, Tiny, star-like, white flowers in clusters

Recommended plant index ****

Common: Can be spreading since detached leaves of plant can root where they drop.

Tough: tough(drought,dry soil,air pollution)

Maintainence: low

Light:sun and part shade

Water use: dry to medium

Soil requirement:dry too medium, well-drained soils

Maintenance advice:1. Prefers moist soils with good drainage

Disease:N/A

Invasive/poisonous:N/A

Easy to be noticed: easy

Usages

Useful cultivars and selections in Vancouver:” 'Coral Carpet'”turns reddish-bronze in winter

Plant design combination:N/A

Suggested plant area:natural garden,Best in rock gardens or as a ground cover.

Texture: hard and dense

Form: creeper

Special usages in landscape:ecological effect: butterfly,deer and rabbit resistant,air pollution tolerant