

148. Kirengeshoma palmata

yellow wax bells

Hydrangeaceae(L7)

Basic ID pendulous, shuttlecock-shaped soft-yellow blossoms

Zone: 5-8

Type: herbaceous perennial(shrubby)

Height and spread: 6 ft/3 ft

Bloom time: late August and early September.

Evergreen/deciduous: deciduous

Flower & Fall color: yellow

Leaf arrangement/Foliage: attractive, glossy, 4- to 8-inch-long, maple-leaf-shaped leaves, erect, purplish stems

Flower/cone/fruit description(s): pendulous, shuttlecock-shaped soft-yellow blossoms /interesting, three-horned, brownish-green seed capsules

Recommended plant index ****

Common: good texture and color contrast

Tough: medium

Maintenance: medium

Light: sun, Light Part Shade Only

Water use: Medium

Soil requirement: rich, moist, acidic soil

Maintenance advice: 1. Shelter from wind.

Disease: Slugs and snails may damage young growth and leaves.

Invasive/poisonous: N/A

Easy to be noticed: easy

Usages

Useful cultivars and selections in Vancouver: "N/A "

Plant design combination: N/A

Suggested plant area: Uses Beds and Borders, Woodland Garden

Texture: glossy

Form: common

Special usages in landscape: N/A