

190. Nymphaea odorata

water lily

Nymphaeaceae

Basic ID unique water plants with white flower and leaves floated above water

Zone:s

Type:herbaceous perennial

Height and spread:8 feet

Bloom time:June - September

Evergreen/deciduous:deciduous

Flower & Fall color: white yellow pink

Leaf arrangement/Foliage:round with a deep slit at the base, 4 to 12 inches in diameter, toothless, on long stems

Flower/cone/fruit description(s):Single flower 3 to 6 inches across floating on still and slow moving waters.They are fragrant, close at night and open in the morning.When water levels are low the leaves may rise above the water and become a bit wavy around the edges.Fruit are round and berry-like

Recommended plant index *****

Common: elegant

Tough:medium

Maintainence: low

Light:sun

Water use: high

Soil requirement:mucky soil

Maintenance advice:1.Plant height: to 8 feet deep

Disease:N/A

Invasive/poisonous:invasive at the water edge

Easy to be noticed: easy

Usages

Useful cultivars and selections in Vancouver:"N/A "

Plant design combination:single

Suggested plant area: pond and shallow water areas

Texture: large and pure

Form: water plant

Special usages in landscape:eat fruits and leaves/fragrant