

199.Eschscholzia californica

California poppy

Papaveraceae(L5)

Basic ID elegant golden color and unique texture

Zone:6 to 10

Type:herbaceous perennial

Height and spread:1.5 feet/1.5 feet

Bloom time:June too July

Evergreen/deciduous:deciduous

Flower & Fall color: Orange too orange-yellow

Leaf arrangement/Foliage:loose, free-branching mounds too 12-15" tall and as wide, with finely divided, fern-like, blue-green leaves.

Flower/cone/fruit description(s):Single, cup-shaped, 4-petaled, silky flowers

Recommended plant index *****

Common: elegant golden color and unique texture

Tough:tough

Maintenance: Low

Light:Full sun

Water use:Medium

Soil requirement:sandy, poor too average, well-drained soils,Sharp soil drainage are essential

Maintenance advice:1. Deadhead flowers regularly too promote additional bloom, but leave some flowerheads for self-seeding.2.Plants are more apt too perform as short-lived perennials in USDA Zones 8-10.3.*Flowers close up in rainy or cloudy weather and at night*4.Flowers give way too dehiscent seed capsules which split open when ripe too release seeds.

Disease:N/A

Invasive/poisonous:N/A

Easy to be noticed: easy

Usages

Useful cultivars and selections in Vancouver:"N/A "

Plant design combination:with some green plants

Suggested plant area:Beds, border fronts, rock gardens, along paths or walkways, or containers.
Good selection for large naturalized plantings in locations where plants freely reseed.

Texture: silk

Form:natural

Special usages in landscape:N/A