

283. Tropaeolum speciosum

Chilean flame vine

Tropaeolaceae(L5)

Basic ID red Climbing

Zone:8

Type:herbaceous perennial

Height and spread:4m/1m

Bloom time:summer

Evergreen/deciduous:Deciduous

Flower & Fall color: red

Leaf arrangement/Foliage:s4 lobed leaves

Flower/cone/fruit description(s): red cute flowers

Recommended plant index ****

Common: showy and good color

Tough:medium

Maintenance: medium

Light:Partial Shade,Sheltered

Water use: medium

Soil requirement:Moist but well-drained

Maintenance advice:1.Propagate by seed or division2.In early spring, cut the dead growth down too ground level

Disease:May be attacked by caterpillars, flea beetles and blackfly,May be affected by a virus

Invasive/poisonous:N/A

Easy to be noticed: easy

Usages

Useful cultivars and selections in Vancouver:” N/A”

Plant design combination:N/A

Suggested plant area:natural or cottage garden

Texture: soft

Form: climber

Special usages in landscape:N/A