

291. Kniphofia hybrid torch lily Xanthorrhoeaceae(L2)

Basic ID torch like flowers with a color change from cream to orange red

Zone: 6 to 9

Type: herbaceous perennial

Height and spread: 1.5 feet/1.5 feet

Bloom time: June to September

Evergreen/deciduous: deciduous

Flower & Fall color: Cinnamon red

Leaf arrangement/Foliage: linear strap-shaped basal leaves

Flower/cone/fruit description(s): showy bottle brush-like flower spikes

Recommended plant index ****

Common: unique and showy

Tough: medium

Maintenance: Medium

Light: Full sun, tolerates some light shade

Water use: Dry to medium

Soil requirement: humus-rich, evenly moist, well-drained soils, sharp soil drainage

Maintenance advice: 1. locate in areas protected from wind

Disease: N/A

Invasive/poisonous: N/A

Easy to be noticed: very easy

Usages

Useful cultivars and selections in Vancouver: "N/A "

Plant design combination: N/A

Suggested plant area: Outstanding vertical accent. Effective specimen. Small groups in a perennial border.

Texture: layers

Form: upright

Special usages in landscape: Good Cut, Attracts: Hummingbirds, Butterflies, Tolerate: Rabbit, Deer, Drought, Dry Soil