

Dance 9

Research Project: Various Dance Styles

Term 3

Goal: Explore a dance style of your choice to discover its origin, define its style, explore where you can learn this dance style in the Greater Vancouver Area, see professional dancers perform as well as dancers in training.

Part A: Research paper on Google Slides shared to Ms. Isabelle

At this email address: isabelle.handsworth@gmail.com

Part B: In class group presentation (Google Slides presentation & teach a dance combo to your peers)

Directions for the research paper

- a. 2-3 students per group
- b. Pick a dance style
- c. For each slide, add all you will share with the class, your research, in the speakers' notes. All your notes must be written in the speakers' notes. At the bottom of the speakers' notes, add the links you used as your bibliography so I can verify your primary sources.
- d. Research paper components to include:
  1. The origin
    - 150 words
  2. Define the style (movements, music, etc.)
    - 150 words
  3. Attach 4 pictures that represent the style (add caption explaining what each image is and where it comes from)
  4. Add a link to 1 video demonstrating the style from professional dancers.
    - a. Research a professional dance company that specializes in this dance style, preferably from Canada (link to a dance video and website required). Talk about the professional dance company. – 150 words
    - b. For the video, explain who the choreographer is, what the music is, why you choose this video, and explain what they do that represent your dance style.
  5. Add a link to 1 video demonstrating the style from impressive teenagers doing this style.
    - a. For each, explain who the dancers are and why you picked this over other videos.
    - b. If it is from a competition or a show, explain what they are.
  6. Name one place that specializes in this dance style in the Lower Mainland (name & location), where you could go to learn this dance style. Give information on the studio and what they specialize in, who the classes are for, etc.
  7. Give the link to 1 video of this style that you can see yourself being able to learn and/or teach today. Explain why you chose this video.
  8. Expand on what you like and dislike about this dance style –
150 words
- e. You must complete your project no later than Friday, March 13, 2020
