

Jacob Bauer
210-1050 10th Ave west
Vancouver, BC V6H 1H8
E-mail: Jacob.w.bauer@gmail.com

Career Objectives: To obtain professional standing as geoscientist through APEG BC and work as a hydrologist or geomorphologist.

Education:

2014 – Present University of British Columbia
Geographical Biogeoscience, Faculty of Science

2012 - 2013 Capilano University
Undergrad Associate of Science

Work Experience:

2012 - Present Ministry of Forests Lands Natural Resource Operations
Forestry Fire Fighter

- Member of a Coastal Initial Attack Fire Management Team for 2 years. Problem solved logistics of accessing and attacking fires in their early stages.
- Member of the Heat Seekers Unit Crew for 2 years. Worked in a 20 man team suppressing large project fires. Spent many hours outdoors, working with others in arduous circumstances. Responsible for being alert and working safely in hazardous environments.

2010 - 2012 Paramount Paint in Whistler BC
Worked as an exterior painter for 2 summers.

2010 - 2012 Whistler Blackcomb Inc.
Developed interpersonal skills as a sales associate at Showcase Skate and Snow.

Personal Data:

Awards
Rutherford Scholarship from Capilano University

Special Skills
Navigation in backcountry and mountain terrain

Snowmobiling and ski touring

Chainsaw operation

Technical communications

Helicopter safety

ATV operation

Certifications

Danger Tree Assessor from Ministry Forests Lands Natural Resource Operations

Chainsaw Faller and Bucker

Occupational First Aid

Avalanche Safety Training Level 1

Interests

Snowboarding, climbing, hiking and environmental science

References

Konrad Apanowicz

Bravo 1 Crew Leader

Pemberton Fire Base

2000 Airport Rd.

Pemberton, BC V5H 2G4

Professor Dan Moore - Hydrologist

1984 West Mall,

Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z2

Department of Geography

Professor Roger Beckie – Geo-hydrologist

2020 - 2207 Main Mall

Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z2

Department of Earth and Ocean Science