

MOCK Interview Questions: KVLEE

- Tell me about yourself
- What is your philosophy of teaching?
- What are your pedagogical strategies?
- What are your classroom management strategies?
- What are your thoughts on assessment?
- What are your strengths? Weaknesses?
- What did you learn from your practicum?
- Why do you want to be a teacher-on-call?
- What provides you the greatest pleasure about teaching music?
- Would you prefer to try a lot of strategies or perfect the ones that work for you?
- Do you like to teach with a plan or let the process determine the results?
- Where do you see yourself in 3 to 5 years?
- Can you tell me any breakthrough moments when teaching?

VSB July 2024

How did you use assessment as learning?

Tell us about a time when there was a disagreement between you and a former employer.

How did you handle conflict in your classroom?

VSB November 2023 questions

1. What interests you about teaching
2. What would you like your students to take from their learning experience from you
3. Tell us about a lesson you had to modify and/or adapt to support all learners
4. Describe the best lesson that you have delivered to a group of students
5. Tell us how you navigated a situation where a student (s) displayed unexpected behavior
6. Describe a conflict between you and co-worker/supervisor. Eg could be from a previous employer

Richmond Interview Questions (2023)

Describe a lesson that involved differentiated instruction

Give us an example of classroom management in one of your classes

Tell us about a lesson that went well & lesson that did not go well

Equity and inclusion: Discrimination in the workplace? What did you do?

2 strengths that your SA/FA would say about you.

1 weakness that your SA/FA would say about you.

What is one act of kindness you did recently

Surrey Interview questions:

1. When faced with a difficult or struggling student, what did you do to handle this?
2. Based on your education, teaching, and personal life, what is the biggest area that needs development?
3. Lesson plan that didn't go well
4. Talk about a difficult student
5. how assessment has affected your teaching

Burnaby Interview questions:

1. What lesson was effective in unit plan? Why ? ineffective?
2. What would you revise in unit plan? Why?
3. How does unit plan topic connect to BC arts curriculum?

Langley (2020)

1. Think of a lesson you taught that exemplifies inspiration and innovation. What was your goal, how did you assess students, and how did you engage struggling students?
2. Give an example of a learning experience you created that fostered hope, efficacy, and achievement.
4. Think of a lesson that didn't go so well. How did you demonstrate courage and excellence?
5. How will you establish your classroom management at the beginning of the school year in a way that fosters a positive classroom environment?
6. Think of a disciplinary instance and how you handled it.
7. What are your greatest strengths?
8. What is a weaker area that you would like to grow in?

2022 Coquitlam Interview Questions:

1. What are some of your resume highlights ?
2. Of teachers you admire, list qualities they possess?
3. What of these listed qualities do you have?
4. What can you do to develop these qualities?
5. How could you contribute to the school community?
6. Describe your unit plan for me
7. How do you talk to students, parents, and staff members?
8. Why is it important to talk to parents? What's the purpose of it?
9. Describe a difficult teaching situation and what different strategies you would implement
10. Describe difficult students and how you would deal with them?
11. Share 1 successful lesson and why it was effective
12. What were your weakness? And in what ways are you improving on these?
13. What are your strengths?

Maple Ridge Interview Questions

1. How to deal with students who don't listen
2. In which situations do you find teachers need to multitask
3. What difficulties do you think music teachers face today
4. Explain some difficult students you dealt with
5. How do you teach/support a diverse classroom
6. Will you ever give a student zero?
7. What to do if you are TOC and the day plan is very sparse
8. If the class is not listening to you and is disruptive, what management strategies