

1. Being born, growing up hearing Twi
2. Going to school and realizing that not everyone understood or new about my culture
3. Feeling isolated from my culture (not understanding language + wanting to fit in at school)
4. Feeling trapped, and unable to relate to anyone outside of my home.

Q: Using this picture tell a story of the discovery of your culture. What events, memories and/or experiences shaped it?

Definition of culture: The beliefs, customs, arts of a particular society, group, place or time.

6. Travelling to Ontario and meeting my cousins for the first time. Being around those who were similar to me and feeling comforted by this.

6/7. Being "Canadian" Leona and "Ghanawan" Leona.

8. Teaching others, friends, teachers about my culture

9/10/11/12: A healthy balance between being a Ghanaian and being a Canadian. All of these cultures I've been exposed to make up a portion of me.
