

Resource and the Environment Speaker Series

Presented by the Master of Food and Resource Economics Program

Heather Wood Senior Policy Analyst at Fisheries and Oceans Canada

February 26, 2016

Time: 3:30 to 5:00pm

Room 160 MacMillan Building

2357 Main Mall

The series is open to the public.

Photograph by: Kim Stallknecht , Vancouver Sun

Heather Wood is the Regional Manager of Aquaculture Programs, based in the Pacific regional office of Fisheries and Oceans Canada. Previous positions held at DFO include Senior Marine Protected Areas Coordinator and International Policy Team Lead. Prior to joining DFO, she spent 10 years working with Environment Canada in both Ottawa and Vancouver as a Senior Policy Advisor on international and intergovernmental issues, with a primary focus on Canada-US relations. Before joining the Federal Government, Heather worked in both the private and NGO sectors as a land-use planner and strategic advisor on natural resource issues. Heather has a BAH in Geography from Queen's University and a Masters' of Urban Planning from McGill.

Future Speakers in this series:

March 11: David Minato, Regulatory Affairs & Community Manager at BC Salmon Farmers Association

March 18: Jessica Verhagen, Development Executive at Axine Water Technologies.

This series is organized by the Master of Food and Resource Economics Program. mfre.landfood.ubc.ca

a place of mind

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Land and Food Systems