

BUSINESS WRITING FOR TODAY'S PROFESSIONAL

GRADUATE PATHWAYS TO SUCCESS AND MITACS TRAINING

This session is being offered in collaboration with MITACS Training. Mitacs Training provides professional development training to advanced degree graduates, supplementing their education and research experience with the tools necessary to succeed in today's workforce.*

No matter what field you're working in, written communication is a critical part of your day-to-day duties. Regardless of your comfort or skill level, you can benefit from learning techniques to entice your readers and achieve your goals. This workshop will help all professionals hone their writing skills using proven techniques and processes.
