POLICY ANALYST

Recruitment and Development Program

The Policy Analyst Recruitment and Development Program (PARDP) is Natural Resources Canada's signature accelerated development program for master's degree and Ph.D. graduates. Program participants develop the skills and knowledge necessary to become leaders in policy.

WHAT YOU GET:

- Tackle meaningful issues such as Canada's transition to a low-carbon economy, advancing trade issues, and developing its clean technology and bioeconomy industries
- Accelerated advancement from EC-03 ($63,428) to EC-05 ($81,858) in two years
- Opportunities for training and career development (e.g. language training)
- Ability to choose a start date that works best for you (up until January 2020)
