BOURSE DE LA LIBÉRATION

LIBERATION SCHOLARSHIP

BOURSE DE LA LIBÉRATION

Canada and the Netherlands: two countries – one spirit

To celebrate seventy years of liberation and to honour the sacrifices Canadian soldiers made for our freedom, the Netherlands introduces the Liberation Scholarship Program in 2015. As a token of lasting gratitude and friendship, seventy highly motivated Canadian students with a strong academic background will receive a scholarship to study at a Dutch university (of applied sciences) for 3 to 12 months between 2015-2017.

The Netherlands offers you the chance of a lifetime!

- Enjoy a unique and unforgettable international experience;
- Study in a country with one of the best education systems in the world and more than 2,100 English-taught programmes;
- Emerge yourself in another culture and in the vibrant international community of Dutch research universities and universities of applied sciences;
- Participate in interactive education, where your contribution really matters;
- Savour the Dutch innovative, creative and entrepreneurial spirit.

LIBERATION SCHOLARSHIP

BOURSE DE LA LIBÉRATION

Come and experience the Netherlands!

The Netherlands pays tribute to the brave Canadian soldiers who played a pivotal role in the liberation of the Netherlands. This shared history still connects us today.

The scholarship comprises:

- One-off grant to cover international travel and initial costs for your stay in the Netherlands;
- Tuition fee exemption in the Netherlands;
- Support from your Dutch host university (housing, visa, etc);
- Membership of the Liberation Scholarship Program alumni network.

How to apply

If you have the Canadian nationality and would like to study for a period of 3 to 12 months in the Netherlands between 2015-2017, apply for a Liberation Scholarship. Apply directly at one of the participating Dutch higher education institutions before 1 October 2015.

More information

More information about the requirements, the participating Dutch higher education institutions and the application process will be available on 28 May 2015 at www.studyinholland.nl/liberationsscholarship.

The Liberation Scholarship Program is offered by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Ministry of Education, Culture and Science of the Netherlands, EP-Nuffic, 23 Dutch higher education institutions and a select group of Dutch and Dutch-Canadian companies.

Liberation Scholarship Program

The Liberation Scholarship Program offers 70 scholarships to highly motivated students from Canada who would like to study in the Netherlands for three to twelve months and become part of the long-standing historic ties between the two countries.

To celebrate seventy years of liberation and honour the sacrifices Canadian soldiers made for our freedom, the Netherlands launches the Liberation Scholarship Program, as a token of lasting gratitude and friendship.
