

Orchid (Fragrant Thoroughwort) 蘭花
by Cheung Bat [i']

Here is a piece for Classical guitar composed by Cheung Bat from Hong Kong. I believe it was written sometime within the 1970's and 1980's, at a time when Country music was very popular in schools.

It doesn't have an English name - a more accurate translation is Fragrant Thoroughwort and "蘭花" is its Chinese name. It is a popular Chinese plant and there are many many varieties... and it's extremely expensive.
