

Student Name _____ Date _____

Problem Solving Rubric for Yard Work in Pangman Online Task

Experiencing Difficulty	Beginning	Approaching	Meeting
The suggested route includes seven or fewer of the eleven addresses from Sarah's list.	The suggested route includes eight or nine of the eleven addresses from Sarah's list.	The suggested route includes ten of the eleven addresses from Sarah's list.	The suggested route is complete and includes all of the addresses from Sarah's list.
The explanation of the suggested route is difficult to understand and/or includes many errors.	The explanation of the suggested is unclear at times and/or has errors.	The explanation of the suggested route is clear and logical but has at least one minor error.	The explanation of the suggested route is clear, logical and error free.
The solution submitted is not an effective route for Sarah to take . She would need to haul her equipment much further than necessary.	The solution submitted is not an effective route for Sarah to take . She would need to haul her equipment further than necessary.	The solution submitted is an effective route for Sarah to take that would minimize the distance she would need to haul her equipment.	The solution submitted is the most effective possible route for Sarah to take that would minimize the distance she would need to haul her equipment.
Struggled to hold the attention of most classmates during the sharing experience.	Struggled to hold the attention of some classmates during the sharing experience.	Shared an item or information that was somewhat interesting to the audience and was able to keep their attention during parts of the sharing experience.	Shared an item or information that was interesting to the audience and was able to keep their attention throughout the sharing experience.

Teacher Comments