

YWLP-Cameroon Global Solidarity Retreat

WITH CAROLINE M BERINYUY, PHD

Mount Washington Mountain Centre

Friday March 11 (7:30 pm - bus up the mountain)

Sunday March 13 (12:30 - bus returns participants to Courtenay)

Our Facilitator:

Caroline M Berinyuy PhD

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
Catholic University of Cameroon (CATUC)

Why attend?

Learn

With Caroline, a global leader who “gets” both Cameroon and North American, about her approach to working with youth

- Celebrating diversity
- Community outreach
- Capacity development and enhancement
- Promoting girls’ education

Explore

Approaches to intercultural collaboration and global citizenship participation

Listen deeply, “be” with Caroline’s story, and appreciate her way of seeing the world

Consider

Insider/outsider perspectives: dealing with assumptions, biases and different ways of knowing

Global solidarity with colleagues here and in Cameroon

Discuss

Needs identification: whose needs:

Imposed, perceived or expressed need?

Leadership, teamwork, and intercultural communication practices

Connect

Engage in global work from here: engage with work in Cameroon and related work here in BC.

Build connections with university and college students, non-profit staffers and interculturalists

The details

Dates: Friday March 11 to Sunday March 13; debrief meeting April 7th (TBC)

Location: Mt Washington, Comox Valley, Vancouver Island

Cost: Registration, food & accommodation $350 - $500 (sliding scale) - subsidies available

Numbers: 10 – 25 participants from 16-80 years old

Applications: Send to globalsolidarityretreat@gmail.com.

