

- Read the questions and instructions carefully
- Make sure you're answering the question as stated
- Don't forget your introduction AND conclusion
- Make sure quotes are integrated into your writing
- Avoid using your personal voice (ex: I think...) as it makes your writing appear less formal
- Be concise; don't be too wordy or ramble on and on and on and on...
- Proofread for mistakes and clarity (a couple won't hurt your mark, but too many will)
- Don't leave your paragraph unfinished on the actual provincial, put *something* down
- Use transitions in your paragraph
