

NEW FRANCE: a Royal Colony

New France

- In 1663, Habitants had colony in Debt and too many attacks were being made on New France.
- King Louis (XIV) takes direct and full control.
 - Absolute Monarchy: a king (monarch) who has unlimited power over his people, not restricted by any laws/rules.

New France

- In an absolute monarchy:
 - only those selected by king can participate in government.
 - only king makes final decision.
 - King responsible for wellbeing of all.
 - majority rule does not exist. Minority has say.

New France

- How do you think the king ruled a colony across an ocean when the ship journey was atlas one month?

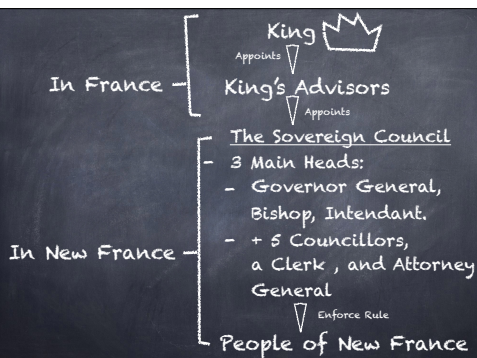

New France

- How do you think the king ruled a colony across an ocean when the ship journey was atlas one month?

New France: Sovereign Council

- How do you think the king ruled a colony across an ocean when the ship journey was atlas one month?

Take a Break from me:

- Individual or with a friend, open Canada Revisited to page 47-49.
- Make your own notes on the responsibility of each level and role within the sovereign council (ignore set people).
- Understand who influenced who.
- Know: Figurehead, and nobility.

Seigneurial System