

KPMG Ace the Case 2024

KPMG Ace the Case 2024 will provide you the opportunity to work with your peers to develop a solution to a business problem and share it with KPMG leadership! You will ignite your passion to create solutions to real-world problems, collaborate with students from across the country, develop your business skills and grow your network within KPMG in Canada.

Case Competition

The Case Competition for STEM students, business students, or students looking to achieve their CPA designation will provide you with a taste of what it's like to work at KPMG in Canada, and an opportunity to participate in a spotlight session showcasing the CPA support provided by our firm. Working in teams with peers in your region, you will collaborate to solve a real-world business problem by completing a case study through a business, digital and CPA lens, receiving valuable feedback from industry professionals.

KPMG Ace the Case is ideal for students who are interested in building a career in audit, tax or advisory at KPMG.

Winners of the regional round will be invited to our national competition where teams will present their case to a panel of KPMG leaders in Toronto.

Students are invited to apply individually, and if selected, will be grouped into teams. Teams will meet the following criteria:

- Four to six students per team
- Teams will be composed of more than one gender identity
- Mix of STEM students, business students and/or students looking to achieve their CPA designation

Prizes for winning teams may include KPMG swag, scholarships, a trip to Toronto, and a guaranteed interview for an open KPMG role in a future recruitment cycle!

Participant Eligibility

To participate in KPMG Ace the Case 2024, you must be currently:

- Enrolled at a Canadian post-secondary institution
- Not employed at KPMG (or holding a future-dated offer)
- Planning to pursue a career at KPMG
- In your first to third year of an undergraduate business or STEM program
