

Pride UBC and Outweek present:

Queer U 2011

THE PROMISE AND PRAXIS OF “MAKING IT BETTER”

An interdisciplinary student academic event on sexuality(ies) and gender(s)

PANEL 1 | QUEERING RESEARCH AS ACTIVISM

- “40 Years After the Flood”: A brief examination of gay liberation and student activism at UBC

David Anderson, Centre for Cross-Faculty Inquiry

- Public/Private: Latent homophobia, feminisms, and the politics of anonymity

Daniel Swenson, Women's and Gender Studies

- Normalcy, boundaries, and heterosexism: An exploration of online lesbian health queries

Andrea Polonijo, Sociology

- A Place of Promise? How the University campus figures in sexual exploration for students

Rachael Sullivan, Sociology

PANEL 2 | NEW TOPICS IN QUEER RESEARCH

- Transgenderism through Chinese History: From Han-era medical texts to Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon

Jen Lundin Ritchie, Asian Studies

- Characteristics of asexuality

Morag Yule, Psychology

- Innovations in sexual-political activism: Queer theology meets Theatre of the Oppressed

Kerri Mesner, Centre for Cross-Faculty Inquiry

WHEN: TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8 FROM 4PM TO 7PM

Join us after the panel for a fancy reception in the Penthouse Lounge!

WHERE: THE PENTHOUSE LOUNGE, GSS BUILDING

For more information, check out blogs.ubc.ca/queeru

For all Outweek events, check out www.prideubc.com