

Appendix A

Art Organization/Post-Secondary Institute	Professional Development Offerings
Edmonton Arts Council	Offer information series on new funding available to artists and their grant application process and submitting an application.
Calgary Arts Development	Offer web series spotlighting artists and information series on their grant application process and submitting an application.
Alberta Foundation for the Arts	Offer information series on new funding available to artists and their grant application process and submitting an application.
Business/Arts (national organization)	Offer a speaker series from industry leaders monthly to exchange ideas and share advice.
Alberta University of the Arts	Offers bootcamps on business culture, etiquette and culture, job searching, personal branding, resume building, and online marketing in Calgary. These sessions are available to current students or alumni.
University of Alberta – Faculty of Extension	Offers part-time certificates and courses in Art and Design, Business and Leadership, and Technology. But does not offer workshops, bootcamps, or short professional development courses.
University of Calgary – Professional and Continuing Education	Offers part-time certificates and courses in Art and Design, Business and Professional Management, and Computer and Information Technology. But does not offer workshops, bootcamps, or short professional development courses.
Grant MacEwan University – Continuing Education	Offers part-time certificates and courses in Art and Design, Business and Management, and Art, Design, and Digital Media. But does not offer workshops, bootcamps, or short professional development courses.