British Columbia Selected Applicant Schools

These school programs are not certified by British Columbia's Ministry of Education. They have been selected to work towards future BC certification, and have signed a Candidate Status Agreement with the ministry but have not yet progressed to the Candidate Status level. Proposed British Columbia educational programs in these schools have been reviewed and selected by the Province of British Columbia's Ministry of Education, on the basis of their submitted applications, as applicants with potential to successfully offer British Columbia-certified programs in the future.

British Columbia Selected Applicant School

An authority may make application to offer a British Columbia Program offshore. If all the criteria of the application are met the applicant becomes a "selected applicant" enabling them to move to the next level within their own time frame.

When a selected applicant has paid the Candidate Status Application fee and signed a Candidate Status Agreement their name will be posted on the website to indicate intent to open a BC Program within the next year.
