

SAMUEL KING

2142 Collingwood Street Vancouver, BC V6R 3K9

(604) 722-7418

samwhy@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE: Student Assistant, Geographic Information Centre

PROFILE SUMMARY

- 3rd year Geographical Biogeosciences student at UBC
- Acquired knowledge of local and global ecosystems through numerous courses
- Experience working with and organizing important items
- Great interpersonal skills
- Proficient in Microsoft Office, Idrisi & ArcGIS Geographic Information software

WORK EXPERIENCE

Organic Fair Farm, Cobble Hill, British Columbia

October 2007-December 2011

- Worked on the farm tending to crops and free-range animals.
- Helped prepare/package products in the farms main facility and selling/sampling products in the farms store front
- Also participated in EPIC Vancouver: Sustainable Food Festival and Canadian Health & Food Association Toronto Conference and Trade show

Choices Market, Vancouver, British Columbia

November 2008-January 2011

- Employed as Grocery clerk to help organize incoming stock while providing thorough customer service
- Moved up to Bakery clerk and was in charge of ordering bakery products from Rice bakery location and preparing pick-up orders for customers.

Sears Warehouse Nanaimo

October 2006-August 2007

- Delivered incoming stock to multiple floors and departments
- Readied customer pick-ups
- Built in-store displays and maintained organized warehouse

Coast Wholesale Appliances Nanaimo

November 2005-September 2006

- Organized incoming stock and maintained cleanly warehouse
- Operated clamp-lift and fork-lift
- Gathered stock for customer orders as well as delivery orders

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Geographical Biogeosciences Field Course at UBC

January-April 2015

- Completed in class activities such as mapping, surveying, sampling, electronic data acquisition and use of scientific instruments
- Practiced skills acquired in-class at field camp located at Cheakamus Centre
- Field camp was an intensive 6 day trip with assignments based on field research due everyday

SAMUEL KING

2142 Collingwood Street Vancouver, BC V6R 3K9

(604) 722-7418

samwhyz@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE: Student Assistant, Geographic Information Centre

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Environmental Field School at Langara College

January- April 2012

- Utilized environmental science field research techniques through five-day intensive field exam at Pacific Rim National Park near Tofino on Vancouver Island
- Techniques included quadrat sampling, biodiversity surveys, water chemistry, stream flow analysis, and soil horizon assessments

Biology Field School at Bamfield Marine Science Centre

September-December 2013

- Participated in weekend trip as required of Invertebrate Biology course at Langara College.
- Repeated many of the techniques at Environmental Field School such as quadrat sampling and biodiversity surveys of local flora and fauna.

Youthful Expression

December 2013

- Provided equipment and music as a DJ for this Hip-hop dance event at UBC Student Union Building.
- It was also a fundraiser for Red Cross Relief Effort in Philippines

EDUCATION

University of British Columbia

Bachelor of Science in Geographical Biogeosciences

September 2014-Ongoing

Langara College

Associates Degree of Science in Environmental Studies

January 2011-December 2013

Associates Degree of Health Sciences

January 2011-December 2013

INTERESTS

- Soccer, swimming, hiking, gardening, and cooking
- DJ'ing & record collecting: <https://soundcloud.com/dj-samwhyz-1>

REFERENCES

- Dr. Frank Williams

Environmental Studies Program Coordinator at Langara College

Phone: 604.323.5378 Email: fwilliams@langara.bc.ca

- Kent Goodwin

Co-Owner & President at Organic Fair

Phone: 250.733.2035 Email: info@organicfair.com