

1. To begin with, can you tell me a little bit about the teaching practices that you use in your courses that you believe are beneficial to the mental health and wellbeing of your students?
 - a. Can you share why you choose to use these teaching practices?
 - b. How do these teaching practices affect you? (Your teaching effectiveness, relationship with students, workload, stress, ability to meet tenure and promotion criteria, etc.)
 - c. Do you believe that any of these are particularly beneficial to both their learning and their mental health and wellbeing?
2. Are there any teaching practices that you used in the past that you felt were not beneficial and/or were challenging to the students mental health and wellbeing?
 - a. What lead you to that perception?
3. Have students ever provided you with feedback regarding your teaching approaches? How did you use the feedback?
 - a. Did you solicit this feedback?
4. What support and resources do you need to continue to practice or to improve your teaching in ways that support student mental health and wellbeing?
5. What inspired you to agree to this interview? Or Why did you agree to participate in this study?
6. During our discussions with students we have heard that the following practices have a positive impact on their mental health and wellbeing. What are your reactions? Is there anything you do to support this in your teaching?
7. Students feel that their wellbeing is supported when they feel connected to their instructor.
 - A. Students feel that their wellbeing is supported when they feel connected to their peers and classmates.
 - B. Students feel that their wellbeing is supported when they feel a meaningful connection to the material they are learning. (i.e. find material interesting/valuable, able to learn effectively)
 - C. Students indicated that having clear expectations promotes their wellbeing.
 - D. Student indicated that a safe and supportive classroom environment supports their wellbeing.
8. Is there anything else that you would like to share with us?