1) Drawing on poetry

Respond to a poem with an illustration. Weave your drawing through the words.

Constraints

The drawing cannot impede legibility.

Example

This poem is "Spelling" by Carl Leggo

Goal

The goal is to interact and respond to poetry in an unconventional way. This exercise allows students to play with the words and perhaps allow the words to lift off the page.

2) Cubic Poem

Create a cubic poem

Constraints

The poem must consist of 3 stanzas of three line. Each line must be three words long. Each word in the poem must be able to function as both a noun and a verb.

Example

Spread alert delight Lift lead highlight Function turn fight

Comfort burn bite Demand call light Broadcast blame blight

Measure mind might Practice praise sight Thunder raise fright

Goal

This exercise can help students look at words from multiple dimensions. It stimulates creativity and strengthens vocabulary.

3) The stories that shape you

Draw a simple sketch of yourself and surround this sketch in the stories that shape you. What do you tell yourself about who you are? What are some external stories about who you are?

Constraints

Length of stories must be short snapshots of thoughts.

Example

Goal

This is a reflection on how we are shaped by stories. This project would be accompanied by a discussion and further writing exercises.

4) Register Shift Down

Choose a formal text. Register shift the formal text down to a more casual tone. This shifts the tone and the language to be casual.

Constraints

Time - 20 minutes

Example

Original text - Bachelor of Arts from UBC

The Chancellor of the University of British Columbia with the approval of the Senate upon the recommendation of The Faculty of Arts has conferred the degree of Bachelor of Arts on Christabel Sidney Shaler

In Witness Whereof and by the authority duly committed to us we have hereunto set our hand and seal

Register shift down

The head honcho of UBC with a green light from the grand poobah got word from the arts posse and kicked down major props and a legit B.A. for C-beezy

Our word is bond yo

Goal

This allows students to understand the relevance of audience and reflect on their language usage.

5) Gather objects and stories about someone in your family or community. Use these objects to tell a story.

Constraints

Telling a story using objects.

Example

These are items that tell the story of my Grandmother Vivian. After raising five children, she decided to return to school and become a school counsellor.

Goal

This exercise helps students to re-think the concept of storytelling. This could connect with additional exercises that examine unconventional narratives.

6) Alliteration Haiku

Re-write a news story using alliteration

Constraint

Haiku structure - Syllable count: 5/7/5 with alliteration

Example

Teen sass and tear gas

Fearful faultlines fracture fast

Streets swell with sirens

Goal

The goal is to foster creativity through the challenge of constraint. Students will examine their ability to tell a story with minimal words.

7) Wonder about an object. Continue writing and wonder until the time is up.

Constraint

Timed - 5 min. Use pen and paper. Write continuously. You cannot read over it or correct it while you are writing.

Example

20
e of worder
I wonder about this sup of coffee. Why does the taste and fragrance
When does the taste and branzance grasure me when I am enveloped by it. I wonder if there is any awareness alive in a coffee bean. Does it understand how for it has travelled? I wonder if it came here by boat or by plane. I wonder it organic П
coffee beans are happies.	ı
A wonder whether the coffee	ı
beaus come ferom a happy	ı place or a place full of	ı
The of he person for a	ı sorrow. I wonder if we geally know how it ampacte Irumans. What if it was designed	1 wimans, what if it was accided by aliens to make us more productive
J. Cauciline

Goal

This exercise is designed to ignite imagination and increase confidence in creative thinking.

8) Describe emotions using only the sense of touch

Constraint

The limitation of only using touch as a description

Example

Jealousy is like velcro with lint stuck in it

Fear is crumbly and cold like crushed ice

Anger is hot and magnetic

Grief is cold wet metal with sharp edges

Happiness is round and fluffy

Resentment is a bag of broken glass

Retaliation is sticky

Goal

This exercise is designed to enhance the descriptive skills of students

9) Phrasal verb alphabet soup. Gather phrasal verbs in order of the alphabet

Constraint

Organizing phrasal verbs in order of the alphabet

Example

Act up

Back down

Come around

Die down

Ease off

Fizzle out

Get across

Hush up

Insist on

Jump in

Kick back

Lash out

Mock up

Name after

Opt out

Play back

Que up

Refer to Settle down

Take off

Usher in

Vouch for

Waste away

X - out

Yearn for

Zoom in

Goal

This exercise is a great way to explore phrasal verbs and examine understanding.

10) Write a poem about logic, math or technology

Constraint

The limitations of the subject matter provide a unique challenge. Each line is 7 syllables.

Example

Algorithms

Target marketing punctures truth to be porous

Curated echo chambers preach to the chorus

Scrolling for kardashian clickbait with more rush

Flickering dick pics and 5 ways to be gorgeous

News feeds feed fear like a hungry Ouroboros

Goal

The goal is to challenge students to see how anything can be poetic. Students can reflect on logic and art without the confines of duality.