

We are recruiting 2 Editors-in-Chief for Volume 9!

Sojourners: Undergraduate Journal of Sociology is a peer and Faculty reviewed journal published annually by the Sociology Students Association of the University of British Columbia. Sojourners is the first peer reviewed undergraduate journal of Sociology in North America. Our mandate is to provide a venue for the publication of outstanding undergraduate writing.

We are currently recruiting 2 Editors-in-Chief for the 2016/2017 publication. This position requires editors-in-chief to commit to Sojourners from April 2016 to June 2017.

What do experienced Editors-in-Chief think of Sojourners?

“ I love being part of a strong, cohesive team committed to promoting undergraduate work. I also love seeing people flourish both as authors and editors. As an EIC, I gained much needed leadership, mentoring, time management, and communication skills —all of which has improved my performance in other areas of my life. Sojourners can give you a chance to flex your leadership skills as a mentor or as part of the executive team. Being an editor or getting published at Sojourners looks great on a resume or CV, and —from my own experience —could be your ticket into graduate school!
—Vesna Pajović
Editor-in-Chief
Volume 8

I love knowing that I'm part of an undergraduate publishing legacy. When I first joined as an Associate Editor, I was an average writer. Now every paper I write gets an A-level grade. You learn how to read multiple papers effectively, and how to teach that skill to others. This year especially, Sojourners feels like a small community: I'm well connected with like-minded peers and faculty. With a driven passion for academic publishing and team building, being an EIC has only ever enhanced my journey at UBC. Most of all, Sojourners* solidified for me my publishing career path!

—Selenna Ho
Editor-in-Chief
Volumes 6,7,8

What we offer:

Sojourners' EIC internship allows students to gain insight into the academic publishing process. We offer hands-on training, professional connections, publishing workshops, and more!

Qualifications:

- Major or minor in Sociology at UBC
- 3rd year or higher
- Strong writing skills
- Experience working with an academic journal
- Able to adapt and learn quickly
- Able to work well independently and in a partnership
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Strong leadership and time management skills
- Strong administrative and executive skills

Key Responsibilities:

- Commit from April 2016 to June 2017
- Attend two or more mandatory training sessions
- Create and present meetings and workshops
- Edit and shortlist academic papers
- Liaise between editors, authors, and faculty members
- Promote Sojourners on campus and online

Please submit the following documents in PDF format:

- Resume (max 2 pages)
- Cover Letter (max 1 page--please state in the first paragraph that you can commit to Sojourners from April 2016 to June 2017)
- Writing Sample (max 2 pages-- this can be a part of an academic paper)

Please send these documents to:

Vesna Pajovic & Selenna Ho
Editors-in-Chief
Sojourners: Undergraduate Journal of Sociology
UBC
sojourners.eic@gmail.com

••• ONLY PRE-SELECTED APPLICANTS WILL BE CONTACTED •••

www.blogs.ubc.ca/sojourners/

www.facebook.com/SojournersJournal